Currently that is the state of the law but currently we are not arresting anyone for this violation unless there is another criminal associated with the sleeping. If you give me some locations where this is occurring I will attempt to send services to the location and work with Lapd to get the person moved.

Hi Alvan,

I had a question/clarification on rule pertaining to homeless individuals sleeping on public sidewalks:

Currently, individuals cannot sleep on a public sidewalk except between 9pm-6am based on the settlement on the Jones vs. City of Los Angeles case, right? And they can't be blocking a sidewalk or within 10 feet of a business entrance?

Thanks,
Aaron
